INTRODUCTION TO FRENCH LAW II

Professor Michaël Amado

Summer 2024

Introduction to French Law I or the Introduction to French Law offered in May 2022 is a prerequisite to this course. This one credit course will cover Criminal Law as well as Employment and Labor Law.

UNIVERSITY REQUIREMENTS

The link provides the university requirements for all syllabi:
<https://provost.uiowa.edu/student-course-policies>.

TEXTS

“French legal system and French Law,” Michaël Amado (“course pack”);
various articles available online or on ICON

COURSE EVALUATION

There will be an oral exam at the end of the course. Separate instructions will be handed out for the exam. Oral participation in class will also be evaluated. The course grading will NOT be on the Iowa curve.

REACHING ME/OFFICE HOURS

The best time to reach me, if needed, will be in the hour before class. You can email me at michael.amado@avocats-amado.net or call me on WhatsApp at +33 6 85 22 00 57

ASSIGNMENTS

You will find the assignments as separate readings on ICON or in the course pack on ICON. On Monday, class will meet 9:00am-9:50am (50 minutes), then 10 minute break, 10:00am-10:50am (50 minutes), 10 minute break, 11:00am-11:50am (50 minutes), and 12noon-12:50pm (50 minutes). On Tuesday, we will do a legal visit to the National Judge School (ENM), trial court, and appeals court in Bordeaux, for a total of approximately four hours. On Wednesday, we will do the 9:00-10:50 classes, and then go to the City Hall for two hours of class involving city level administration.

On Friday, there will be a 90 minute review period 9:00am-10:30am approximately. If questions finish earlier, then the review will be shorter. If the review goes longer, then the course evaluation period will start later. Approximately thirty minutes will be set aside to do course evaluations, i.e. 10:30-11:00am. When the course evaluations are finished, the final will begin, i.e. approximately 11:00am. I will be available via email or phone if you have any questions during the exam.

For class preparation, please note that the reading material is not evenly split between the days. For the first assignment, please read the material listed under hours 1-4.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Recording: The classes will not be recorded.

Free Speech and Expression: The University of Iowa supports and upholds the First Amendment protection of freedom of speech and the principles of academic and artistic freedom. We are committed to open inquiry, vigorous debate, and creative expression inside and outside of the classroom. For information on the university's policies on free speech and academic freedom, see <https://freespeech.uiowa.edu>. We will abide by these principles to the extent possible in France, which has different rules regarding these issues.

Accommodations for students with disabilities: Please contact Dean Carin Crain for any accommodation requests you may need in advance of leaving for France. She can be reached at carin-crain@uiowa.edu, or +1-319-335-9648. The University is committed to providing an educational experience that is accessible to all students. We will comply with the university rules to the extent possible in France, which has different rules.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

We aim for our students to be able to:

- Learn the basic French method of law-making and the role of the different norms (especially statutes compared to case-law);
- Understand the basic structure and institutions of the French legal system;
- Be able to compare the basic structure and institutions of French system to similar aspects of the American system;
- Be able to engage in oral legal discussion.

All French Codes can be found at: <https://www.legifrance.gouv.fr/initRechCodeArticle.do>

And the best free translator French/English, if needed, can be found at: <https://www.deepl.com/translator>

It may be difficult to find French Law materials written in English. The French Constitution and some texts in English can be found on the Parliament's website: <https://www2.assemblee-nationale.fr/langues/welcome-to-the-english-website-of-the-french-national-assembly> and on the Senate's website: <https://www.senat.fr/lng/en/index.html> but best is to translate texts in French directly from the Legifrance website.
