Unless otherwise indicated, registering for a job fair does NOT require you to attend.
Updated 6/2/2016

Bay Area Diversity Career Fair
Friday-Saturday, July 22-23, 2016
Hilton San Francisco Financial District
San Francisco, CA

The Bay Area Diversity Career Fair, sponsored by Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe and The Bar Association of San Francisco, brings together prominent law firms, government legal departments, and nonprofits in the San Francisco Bay Area with highly qualified diverse rising second-year law students. More than 300 law students from across the nation and 52 employers participated in the 2015 Bay Area Diversity Career Fair.

Only law students who have completed their first year of law school by the time of the interviews are eligible to participate. Openings are for 2017 2L summer associate positions. Registration begins on Monday, May 16 and the registration site can be found here.
The registration and bidding deadline is Sunday, June 12 at 11:59 p.m. PST.
A welcome reception for registered students and employers will be held on Friday, July 22 at 6:00 p.m. at the law offices of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, The Orrick Building, 405 Howard Street, San Francisco, CA 94105 [map].
For questions please contact Erica Bailey, Simah Bargzie, or Michelle Lockhart, Bay Area Diversity Career Fair Project Managers at registration@orrick.com.
Boston Lawyers Group Job Fair for Law Students of Color

Tuesday, August 2, 2016
Sheraton Boston Hotel
Boston, MA
Eligible students must be entering their second year of law school in the fall of 2016 in order to participate in this job fair. Employers are interviewing students ONLY for 2017 summer associate positions (graduates and LL.M. candidates are not eligible). Registration is now open and ends Monday, July 4, 2016. Registration includes providing your contact information, completing your academic profile and uploading your resume and transcript, including spring 2016 grades (unofficial copies are acceptable). To register for the Boston Job Fair, you are required to create an account on the job fair’s Symplicity site at https://law-blg-csm.symplicity.com/students. Please note that this Symplicity account is separate from your University of Iowa Symplicity account. Important! – Job Fair Details:

- Students cannot bid on employers; BLG Members select the students they wish to interview. The BLG cannot guarantee that every student who registers will receive an interview.
- For security purposes, student registration cannot be processed without the email verification step. If you do not confirm your e-mail address, your account will not be activated. The BLG will delete all inactive accounts.
- Students are not required to upload writing samples at the time of registration, although the BLG recommends that you bring along a writing sample to the job fair.
- Student registration will remain pending until the last day of registration. You will receive an email from the BLG approving your documents on or before the student registration deadline. If the BLG does not receive all required registration materials by midnight of the registration date (July 4, 2016), your account will be deleted from the database and you will not have an opportunity to participate.

For additional information regarding the BLG job fair, please visit the BLG website at http://thebostonlawyersgroup.com/student/.

Cook County Bar Association Minority Law Student Job Fair

Friday, August 12, 2016
Chicago Embassy Suites – Downtown / Lakefront
Chicago, IL
The 33rd Annual Cook County Bar Association Minority Law School Job Fair for rising 3L and 2L students will be held Friday, August 12, 2016 at the Chicago Embassy Suite – Downtown / Lakefront. Delaware Minority Job Fair for Rising Second- and Third-Year Law Students

Saturday, August 6, 2016
Widener University School of Law
Wilmington, DE
The Delaware Minority Job Fair Committee of the Delaware State Bar Association invites Iowa Law students to apply for an invitation to participate in the 2016 Delaware Minority Job Fair for Rising Second- and Third-Year Law Students, which will be held at the Wilmington, Delaware campus of Widener University School of Law on Saturday, August 6, 2016. The Job Fair was founded by a consortium of Delaware law firm, corporate, and public sector/interest legal employers interested in recruiting minority law students for the purpose of increasing diversity in the Delaware bar. The Job Fair, an invitation-only event, is limited to students interested in employment opportunities in Delaware who will be in their second or third year of law school during the 2016-17 academic year. While minority law students are the focus of this event, the Job Fair accepts applications from all interested students. We encourage the submission of applications to the Job Fair's recruiting site in Symplicity, https://law-dmpd-csm.symplicity.com/students (a partnership site between the Delaware Minority Job Fair and the Philadelphia Area Diversity Job Fair). The application deadline is 11:59 p.m. (Eastern Time) Monday, May 23, 2016. Please direct any questions regarding the Job Fair or the application process to the Job Fair Administrator at (302) 651-3246 or dmjf@dsba.org.

Equal Justice Works Conference & Career Fair
Friday-Saturday, October 28-29, 2016
Crystal Gateway Marriott
Arlington, VA
The Equal Justice Works annual Conference and Career Fair is the largest public interest career fair in the country. It is the only event where you will find more than 1,200 public interest-minded students representing 200 law schools from across the country coming together to explore career options with leading nonprofit organizations and government agencies. The Conference and Career Fair provides access to job opportunities for law students; connects employers with talented attorneys and law students; and offers a multitude of skill-building and career advising sessions with experts from around the country. This conference continues to be an unparalleled networking opportunity for students, law school professionals and legal professionals. More information on the 2016 Conference and Career Fair coming soon!

Heartland Diversity Legal Job Fair
Friday-Saturday, August 5-6, 2016
Crowne Plaza Hotel
Kansas City, MO
The 12th Annual Heartland Diversity Legal Job Fair (HDLJF) will be held August 5-6, 2016, in Kansas City, Missouri. Students who are interested in becoming part of Kansas City’s dynamic legal community should strongly consider attending this event. Students who will be returning to school in August and those graduating in May are eligible to attend the job fair, as employers will be interviewing for both summer and post-graduate positions. The HDLJF is the result of Kansas City's leading law firms, legal associations, and corporate legal departments coming together to encourage law students to practice law in Kansas City. The HDLJF is designed to expose law students of diverse backgrounds to both traditional and non-traditional legal employers. In addition, the event is a great way to learn more about living in this wonderful city. The HDLJF will be held at the Crowne Plaza Hotel. It will kick off with an evening Welcome Reception on Friday, August 5 at the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association. The Saturday schedule includes a continental breakfast, interviewing from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and a luncheon at which participants will be greeted and addressed by a special Keynote Speaker. Please register as soon as possible. Students who register before May 27 will be entered into a drawing for exciting prizes! The final deadline for registering is June 24, 2016. Students can register on-line at https://law-kcmba-csm.symplicity.com/students/. For more information, please visit the website http://heartlanddiversity.org/.

Hispanic National Bar Association Job Fair
Friday, September 9, 2016
Intercontinental Chicago Magnificent Mile Hotel
Chicago, IL
On Friday, September 9, as part of its 41st Annual Convention in Chicago, the HNBA will host its annual Career Fair, the nation’s largest career fair for Hispanic law students and legal professionals. The HNBA Career Fair is open to all students and to attorneys looking to make contacts and lateral moves. This signature HNBA program will provide you with an unparalleled opportunity to meet and interview with some of the nation’s most respected law firms, companies, organizations and government agencies. The HNBA Career Fair is also a unique and cost-effective way to enter the workforce or advance your career.

If you would like to participate in the Career Fair, please register via the HNBA Registration Portal (https://www.multisoftevents.com/HNBAAM15/Attendee/Register.aspx). Once you have paid for your registration, you will be contacted by Michelle Avelino, HNBA Programs & Administrative Coordinator, with instructions on how to set up your account with the job fair’s Symplicity. Career Fair participant registration deadline is July 15, 2016. If you have questions, please contact Ms. Avelino at support@hnba.com.

Lavender Law® Conference, Career Fair & LGBT Legal Expo
Thursday-Saturday, August 4-6, 2016
Renaissance Washington, DC Hotel
Washington, DC
The National LGBT Bar Association invites Iowa Law students to attend the annual Lavender Law® Conference, Career Fair & LGBT Legal Expo, taking place at the Renaissance Washington, DC Hotel in Washington, D.C. August 4-6, 2016. The National LGBT Bar Association’s annual Lavender Law® Career Fair is designed to achieve a sense of community and inclusion for LGBT candidates within the legal profession’s recruiting efforts. By participating in this career fair, candidates will talk directly to LGBT-friendly recruiters from law firms, government agencies, LGBT rights groups, and corporate legal departments. Nearly 400 students and over 170 recruiters representing law firms, government agencies and non-profit organizations interested in diversity were present at the 2015 career fair in Chicago.
In addition to the Career Fair, Lavender Law® offers individual career counseling for law student attendees. Please visit their website to register for and get more information about this year's conference. Registration deadline is Friday, July 22, 2016. The Career Fair takes place on Saturday, August 6, 2016. The Conference takes place on Thursday and Friday, August 4 & 5, 2016. There is no “single day” registration. Similarly, there is no “career fair only” registration. All registration sales are final and non-refundable. For full program and event details, please visit the Program page.

The Lavender Law® Conference and Career Fair actively seeks the involvement of individuals from every segment of the legal community, and particularly welcomes the participation of people of color, transgender persons and persons with disabilities.

Loyola Patent Law Interview Program
Thursday-Friday, August 4-5, 2016
Loyola University School of Law
Chicago, IL

This two-day interview program held in Chicago each summer brings together patent law employers and law students from across the country to interview for summer associate positions and post-graduate employment. Law students register, submit their resumes and bid on interviews with the nation-wide employers that interest them. Participating employers review the resumes submitted to them and choose the law students they are interested in interviewing at the program. Registration began Monday, February 8 and ENDED on Thursday, March 10. For more information on this year’s program visit http://www.luc.edu/law/career/patent_schools.html.

Midwest Public Interest Law Conference and Career Fair
Saturday, February 6, 2016
Northwestern Law School
Chicago, IL

The 2016 Midwest Public Interest Law Career Conference will be held at the Northwestern University School of Law, Chicago on Saturday, February 6, 2016. Participation in the conference is free and is open to first, second and third year J.D. students. The conference offers students opportunities to interview with a variety of public interest and government employers for summer law clerk and entry-level attorney positions; to meet with employers during Table Talk, a morning session where employers and students informally share information; and to respond to employer job postings for internships and fellowships on the MPILCC Symplicity.com site throughout the school year (for students registered for the Conference). Students cannot register directly on the MPILCC Symplicity site. You must register with Craig Spitzer in Career Services. If interested in participating, provide the following information via e-mail to craig-spitzer@uiowa.edu by Thursday, December 3, 2015:

- Last Name
- Middle Initial or Middle Name
- First Name
- E-mail Address (Must have! No typos!!)
- Current Class Year (1L, 2L or 3L)
- Registered Last Year? (yes or no)

Students will be issued logins and passwords on Monday, January 4 at Noon, and beginning at 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, January 5, students will use the conference’s Symplicity site to upload their resumes and make bidding selections. Resume uploads and bidding will close Wednesday, January 13 at Noon. More information and updates are available at http://mpilcc.uchicago.edu/students.html. Questions? Email craig-spitzer@uiowa.edu.
These interview programs are for rising 2Ls and 3Ls and are 100% pre-screened interviews. Pre-registration is required, however, it does NOT commit you to attending. The Bay Area program is what we call a “Walk Around” Interview Program; candidates will walk to the different employers, all in a few-block radius. Once you are notified that registration is open, register at https://law-midwestcali-csm.symplicity.com and allow a minimum of 24 hours for your registration to be confirmed. Once confirmed, you will receive your username and password. You will also submit resumes, cover letters, and transcripts, and all interview selections and scheduling will be done through this site. The deadline to register AND complete your bidding for all four programs is 11:59 a.m. (12 Noon) Central Daylight Time, Wednesday, July 6, 2016. Be sure to allow a minimum of 24 hours for your registration to be accepted and your password emailed to you – therefore, plan ahead to allow enough time to do your bidding. Questions? Please contact Career Services at law-careerservices@uiowa.edu.

The Minnesota Minority Recruitment Conference (MMRC) is an annual event that connects the largest legal employers in the Minneapolis / St. Paul area with diverse 2L and 3L candidates from around the country. Each year’s conference and job fair includes between 25 and 30 employers and upwards of 100 law students. Employers participating in the interviews will include small, medium and large firms; corporate law departments; and public interest, nonprofit and government entities. The conference is sponsored by Twin Cities Diversity in Practice but is a unique opportunity to interview with both private law firms and local government employers as well. During lunch, students enjoy a discussion on key issues relevant to their job search and building a successful career. The 2016 Minnesota Minority Recruitment Conference will be held at St. Thomas University on Friday, August 5, 2016. Student Registration opens on Monday, April 25; student registration deadline is Thursday, June 2, 2016. Additional details and registration is posted online here. If you have any additional questions please contact us.

The National Black Prosecutors Association (NBPA) cordially invites you to participate in our Annual Job Fair on Tuesday, July 21, 2015 at the Fairmont Hotel, Washington, D.C. The goal of the National Black Prosecutors Association’s (NBPA) Job Fair is to promote diversity in prosecutors’ offices by providing a forum where law students, recent law graduates, and experienced attorneys from across the nation can meet and interview with prospective prosecutorial employers at the local, state, and federal levels. Our annual convention serves, not only as a job fair forum, but as a comprehensive legal training program for prosecutors. This year’s 33rd Annual Conference will run from July 10, 2016 to July 16, 2016. The early registration fee for the Job Fair is $25.00 for law students and 2016 law school graduates, and $50.00 for experienced attorneys. Starting May 1st, the regular Job Fair registration fee is $50.00 for law students and 2016 law school graduates, and $75.00 for experienced attorneys. On June 24th, the Job Fair registration fee increases to $100 for law students and the class of 2016, and $150 for experienced attorneys. Registration closes on July 1st and there are no refunds for the Job Fair registration fee. The Job Fair begins at 8:00 a.m. with registration and check-in; interviews commence at 9:00 a.m. At the culmination of the Job Fair, there will be a reception for all Job Fair participants and Convention attendees. The reception will afford Job Fair attendees an additional opportunity to further network with prospective employers and experienced prosecutors. To register, visit http://www.blackprosecutors.org/newsite/wp-content/uploads/2016/03/NBPA-2016-Applicant-Registration-Form.pdf.

Northwest Minority Job Fair
Saturday, August 27, 2016
Perkins Coie Law Firm
Seattle, WA
For 30 years, the Northwest Minority Job fair, sponsored and funded by a consortium of legal sector employers, has brought together private and public law firms committed to promoting diversity by providing a unique opportunity for employers, law students, and lawyers to match legal talent with needs. Last year’s Northwest Minority Job Fair brought together approximately 120 students and 31 law firms/agencies. This year’s Fair will be held Saturday, August 27, 2016, at Perkins Coie, 1201 Third Avenue, in Seattle. Student registration begins Monday, June 20 and closes Friday, July 22. Registration is free for students, and all expenses are paid by the participating employers. Part of the registration fee provides scholarships for minority students. Perkins Coie is proud to be among the many dedicated law firms in Washington that have supported and hosted this event throughout its 30-year history. As the largest private law firm in the state, Perkins Coie takes their responsibility to provide statewide leadership in this area very seriously, and therefore, they are extremely proud to host the 2016 Northwest Minority Job Fair. Watch this space and their website (http://www.nwmjf.org/students/) for more information as it comes online.

Rocky Mountain Diversity Legal Career Fair
Friday, July 29, 2016
Sports Authority Field at Mile High Stadium
Denver, CO
The Rocky Mountain Diversity Legal Career Fair provides an excellent forum for legal employers, law students and law school graduates to meet and discuss employment options with the goal of expanding opportunities and assisting the legal profession in fulfilling its commitment to diversity. Legal employers attending the RMDLCF seek to hire law students and graduates from diverse backgrounds who have been traditionally under-represented in the practice of law in the Rocky Mountain region. These include candidates who are ethnic or racial minorities, disabled, and/or gay, lesbian, bisexual, queer or transgender.

Law students and recent law school graduates are invited to register and attend the RMDLCF and to apply for twenty-minute scheduled interviews with participating employers. Candidates may also have the opportunity to informally talk with employers at their exhibitor tables. Law students register on the RMDLCF Symplicity site (https://law-rmdlcf-csm.symplicity.com/students/), submit their resumes and bid on interviews with the nation-wide employers that interest them. Participating employers review the resumes submitted to them and choose the law students they are interested in interviewing at the program. Registration began Sunday, April 10 and the DEADLINE to register is Friday, June 10. For more information on this year’s program visit http://www.centerforlegalinclusiveness.org/cli-programs/the-rocky-mountain-diversity-legal-career-fair/.

St. Louis Diversity Job Fair
Saturday, August 13, 2016
Thompson Coburn Law Offices
St. Louis, MO
The 2016 St. Louis Diversity Job Fair will kick off with small group student attorney networking dinners on Friday, August 12, beginning at 5:30 p.m. (locations to be announced) and interviews will be held Saturday, August 13, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the law offices of Thompson Coburn Law Offices, One US Bank Plaza, St. Louis, Missouri. Specific details about both events will be posted on the St. Louis Diversity Job Fair web site and through Symplicity as they become available. The deadline for law student registration is Friday, June 10, 2016 at midnight (CST); absolutely no extensions will be allowed. All students must be registered by this date in order to participate in the Job Fair. Law students can register for the 2016 St. Louis Diversity Job Fair by going to https://law-sldjf-csm.symplicity.com/. When registering, we require students provide the name of a contact in the school’s Career Services office who will be available to assist with coordinating the students’ participation in the Job Fair. Please identify Assistant Dean Akua Akyea (akua-akyea@uiowa.edu) as the Career Services contact! Documentation needed to register for the Job Fair: 1) Law student résumé, 2) law school transcript (unofficial is ok), 3) a brief writing sample, and 4) one page personal statement, in lieu of or in addition to a cover letter which addresses the following:

Employers participating in the 2016 St. Louis Job Fair believe that diversity of thought and experience enriches a dynamic work atmosphere. Please provide a one page statement as to how you would contribute to this value.

Please know it may take up to one business day to get your initial registration approved. You should not submit a second registration and/or contact the Career Services Offices for assistance if you have not allowed the Job Fair administrator enough time to review registration materials. The same request for patience applies for resume and additional documents approval. You may visit our website at http://www.stldiversityjobfair.com/ to obtain additional information.

The St. Louis Diversity Job Fair offers full or partial financial stipends to students who would be unable to attend the Job Fair without financial assistance. The number and amount of stipends awarded is contingent on requests received and funds available. Download the Travel Stipend Award Application! The deadline for submitting stipend requests is Friday, July 1, 2016 at 5:00 p.m. (Central Time).
