Merit Scholarship Renewal Policy

For Students Matriculating in the 2015-16 Academic Year:

Merit scholarships awarded to students beginning law school in 2015 are unconditional. Their renewal does not require a grade point average greater than that necessary to maintain good academic standing.

For Students Matriculating in the 2014-15 Academic Year:

Merit scholarships awarded to students beginning law school in 2014 are unconditional. Their renewal does not require a grade point average greater than that necessary to maintain good academic standing.

For Students Matriculating in the 2013-14 Academic Year:

Merit scholarships awarded to students beginning law school in 2013 are unconditional. Their renewal does not require a grade point average greater than that necessary to maintain good academic standing.

For Students Matriculating in the 2012-13 Academic Year:

A class rank at the end of the academic year equal to or higher than the top 40% will renew a merit scholarship in its full amount for the following academic year. A class rank below the top 40% results in renewal at half of the amount. A scholarship not renewed in full for the second year will be reinstated in full for the third year if, at the end of the second year, the required class standing is achieved.

For Students Matriculating in the 2011-12 Academic Year:

A class rank at the end of the academic year equal to or higher than the top 37.5% will renew a merit scholarship in its full amount for the following academic year. A class rank below the top 37.5% results in renewal at half of the full amount. A scholarship not renewed
