FIELD PLACEMENT COURSE OFFERINGS

General
LAW:9331 Field Placement: General. (3 – 14 s.h.)
Year-round. Students earn credit in a wide range of placements, including private, for-profit settings. Some placements are routinely offered and arranged by the law school, and others are arranged by students and approved by faculty. Some placements are local and students take them along with their other classes. Other students’ placements are full-time, located across the country and around the world.

LAW:9335 Summer Legal Placement. (3 s.h.)
Student-arranged and faculty approved opportunities for direct involvement in activities characteristically performed by attorneys; in-depth exposure to the many facets of the practice of law; career exploration and professional development. Specially designed for, but not limited to, students who have just completed their 1L year.

Judicial
LAW:9322 Field Placement: Judicial. (6 – 14 s.h.)
Students work closely with a federal district court judge or state appellate judge, conducting research and drafting a wide variety of legal memoranda, orders and opinions. Students assist in hearings and perform other duties generally associated with a judicial clerkship. Students are enrolled in an associated class with other judicial externs.

Corporate
In addition to corporate placements secured by individual students and approved by faculty under LAW:9331 Field Placements: General, the law school has an established relationship with the Delaware Supreme Court and Delaware Court of Chancery, through which this course offering may be available for full-semester away study:

LAW: Field Placement: 9331: Corporate Law. (various credits)
Students are selected each year for nomination for placements at the Delaware Supreme Court and the Delaware Court of Chancery.

International
In addition to international placements secured by individual students and approved by faculty under LAW:9331 Field Placements: General, these placements are usually available:

LAW:9331 Field Placement: International Criminal Law at The Hague (semester- or year-long: various credit). Placements with various international criminal institutions located in The Hague, The Netherlands, including the International Criminal Tribunal for Yugoslavia, the International Criminal Tribunal for Cambodia and the International Criminal Court.
LAW:9331 Field Placement: London (spring semester, in conjunction with the London Law Consortium, 660:824.) Students volunteer 10 to 20 hours a week for a nonprofit organization, law firm, or other legal setting under the direct supervision of a lawyer. They also attend a weekly seminar and write a research paper. Students are placed or find their own placement. 3 – 5 s.h. See important details here, including VISA requirements.
