Our Speakers

John Allen
Clinical Professor of Law

Professor Allen earned his B.A. in Philosophy from St. Olaf College ('77), and his J.D. from University of Illinois College of Law ('80).

John Allen has been on the Iowa faculty since 1990. Allen and his students represent clients before courts and administrative agencies in a broad range of civil matters. Much of his work has focused on employment law, including employment discrimination, wrongful discharge, and unemployment insurance cases.

He currently supervises the trial advocacy program and directs the Poverty Law Internship Program. Before entering teaching, he was a senior staff attorney with Legal Services Corporation of Iowa.

Amy Reasner ('01)
Attorney, Lynch Dallas P.C.

Amy earned her B.A. from University of Iowa ('93), and her J.D. from University of Iowa College of Law ('01).

Amy's general practice includes the areas of labor and employment law, insurance defense, and internal investigations. She frequently assists employers in finding common sense solutions on day-to-day issues involving FMLA and other leaves of absence, employees with disabilities, and absenteeism issues as well as risk avoidance in matters involving employee hiring, discipline, and discharge.

She is also an experienced trial lawyer and has tried many cases before courts, juries, and arbitrators in all types of business and employment disputes.
